Government and the people, and saves the tax-payers from paying the interest on the amount.

But much is said of the evils of having too much currency, and it is assumed (and it is but an assumption) that it depreciates exactly in proportion to the amount in circulation. This can only be true in certain conditions. Let us examine it a moment. Suppose

CITY NEWS.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Miss Jane Coombs appears in another new play this evening, entitled "The Wife's Secret." The piece is replete with interest and thrilling effects. It was originally produced in London by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean. The talented artist personating the principal characters—performed by them in that city upwards of five hundred nights, crowding the theater during that entire period. The decided and triumphant success attending its production can easily be imagined by its unprecedented run. Miss Coombs has the only manuscript copy, together with the exclusive right of performing it in this country. The laughable force of the dancing barber will conclude the evening's entertainment. This bill is certainly a very attractive one and should insure a crowded house.

WE take pleasure in advising our friends that Messrs. Chas. Bullett, the artist member of the firm of Muldoon & Co., will shortly visit Italy for the purpose of selecting a stock of marble suited to the wants of their extensive trade. As Messrs. Bullett has few equals in his art, those favoring him with their orders may rely on procuring the very best material and workmanship that the extensive workshops afford. As the opportunity does not often occur we advise all in want of statuary, monuments or tablets to intrust their orders with him, as his taste and judgment is of a very superior order.

AN INTERESTING RAID.—Information has been received in this city that a cavalry force estimated at fifteen thousand, under Wheeler and Forrest, are in the neighborhood of Decatur and Tusculum, Alabama, preparing to cross the river to operate against Gen. Grant's communications. A party of scouts sent out by Wheeler—members of his body-guard—to get information, were captured a few days ago in Maury county, Tenn., and taken to Nashville. Forrest is said to have been wounded again in the battle near Tusculum, on the 24th ult.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, November 2.—The King, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for three months.

Henry Long and William Hogan were presented as suspected felons, and Wm. Hogan upon carrying concealed a deadly weapon; Long was discharged and Hogan's case continued.

Mary O'Donnell, drunk and disorderly conduct; discharged.

Officer C. W. Tiller arrested on Sunday

William Hogan and Henry Long, alias Jack Shephard, two notorious thieves, on the charge of stealing a lot of jewelry and a revolver on the steamer Major Anderson, on her upward trip Friday. They had also in their possession two saws which were stolen on the boat. The property can be seen by calling upon Carter Tiller, at the office of the Chief of Police.

The First Middle Tennessee regiment, under command of Col. Scully, did noble service last week. They "invaded" Hickman county, Tennessee, captured several gangs of bushwhackers, and captured sixty prisoners. Among the latter was a rebel Captain named J. B. Austin, a Lieutenant named D. P. Thomas, and J. O. Griffith, one of the publishers and editors of the old Nashville Union and American.

The Mayville Eagle has been informed that there was a skinning on Saturday last near Mt. Sterling, between the company of Capt. Rice, of the Fortieth Kentucky mounted infantry, and the guerrillas under John T. Williams, in which the former gained a decided advantage. We have no further particulars, and we do not know how true even the report we have received may be.

The accommodation train over the Louisville and Frankfort railroad will hereafter leave the depot, corner of Brook and Jefferson, at 3:30 p. m. Persons residing along the line of the road and passengers to Frankfort will take notice and be on board in season. The other trains will arrive and depart as usual.

Louisville is not the only place that is suffering from dear coal. In New York the price has advanced to fifteen dollars per ton for anthracite, and eighteen dollars for equal. A ton is equal to twenty-eight bushels; but a ton of anthracite coal goes as far as twice that quantity of bituminous.

The regular monthly meeting of the Louisville Board of Trade takes place this (Tuesday) evening at 7 o'clock, at Mechanics' Library, on Fourth street. Business of importance will come before the meeting. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be present.

Several prisoners captured at Look-Out Mountain arrived in Nashville on Sunday. Among them were Capt. Wm. Richardson, of the Fifteenth Alabama, and Sergeant Jacob Vanoy, of the First Arkansas battery.

FOUND.—A small amount of money in greenbacks, which the owner can obtain of F. Reicher, Esq., at the German Insurance Company, by proving property and paying for this notice.

FRESH HARD-SHELL CRABS.—A fine lot of hard-shell crabs, all alive and kicking, has just been received at the St. Charles Restaurant, on Fifth street, C. C. Rafter & Co., proprietors.

The Government has ordered the Quartermaster's Department to be removed to this city. The Medical Director, Colonel Wood, of St. Louis, will hereafter make his headquarters at this place.

John Jones, company D, Sixth Kentucky cavalry, died in one of the general hospitals on Sunday morning.

The Nashville train arrived on time yesterday. All was quiet along the route.

The Insurrection in the Dominican Republic grews more and more formidable every day. It will be recollected that the Spanish portion of the Island of Hayti, mostly inhabited by mulattoes, had long been free under the title of the republic of San Domingo. A year or two ago, however, their President, Santana, betrayed them into the hands of the Spaniards, who pretended to resume authority by the wish of the people. The latter soon showed the falsity of this statement by rising against their oppressors, and have now driven them from Santiago to Port-au-Prince, defeating them with great slaughter on the retreat, and penning up the survivors in the fortress at Port-au-Prince. Before leaving Santiago, the Spaniards burnt the town, and Port-au-Prince has been pillaged by both the contending parties. Merchants and foreign residents are leaving the island. Full $5,000,000 worth of property has been destroyed.

There are now about two thousand seven hundred secession prisoners confined in Camp Morton. There has been a good deal of sickness amongst them this fall, principally arising from exposure. During last month there were thirty-two deaths. This unusual amount of sickness among the prisoners is attributed to the want of sufficient clothing and blankets. The government is now supplying this deficiency by furnishing blankets and clothing in large quantities. Two additional hospital buildings are being built in Camp Morton, one to be one hundred feet long and the other one hundred and twenty feet. The accommodations for the sick have heretofore been insufficient. A regulation for the proper furniture has already been made. The buildings will be completed by the first of December.

The New Albany Ledger learns that a murder was committed at Bridgeport, Harrison county, Ind., on Saturday evening, under the following circumstances: There had been a shooting match just outside the village, and when the company were returning from the shooting, a man named Chenoweth, who lives in Bridgeport, stepped behind another named Maynan, who lived in Kentucky, about three miles from Bridgeport, and struck him (Maynan) with a stone on the head, after which he stabbed him, from the effects of which he died in about two minutes. Maynan's body was allowed to remain in the road till 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Chenoweth made his escape.

ATROCIOUS OUTRAGE.—The Brownstown (Jackson county, Ind.) Union says that a few days before the late election a stranger called upon Mr. Joseph Hise, living three miles from Brownstown, and inquired of him what ticket he voted on Tuesday. Hise replied that he was a Democrat, and had voted for Samuel W. Holmes. The stranger then drew a knife and struck Hise on the head, cutting a frightful gash, and immediately started and ran away before Hise had time to offer resistance. Mr. Hise does not know who the man was.

The following named Kentucky soldiers died in the hospitals in Nashville during the week ending Saturday, October 31st: John Evans, company D, Sixth Kentucky cavalry; J. S. W. Paris, company F, Fourth Kentucky cavalry; W. J. Conner, sergeant company B, Sixth Kentucky cavalry; Joseph Fox, company G, Twenty-eighth Kentucky.

All the railroads in the West and South have been declared military routes, and the whole placed under the control of J. B. Anderson.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Restorative.

It is not a dye, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural coloring matter. It is composed of natural coloring matter, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and effecting the growth of new coloring matter. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a natural beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair Coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured of the original and sole proprietors, D. S. Barnes & Co., 302 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. ocl8 d&w&w&w

Ladies should remember that there are as many grades of quality in furs as in cloths, silks or any other goods. Their value depends on their genuineness, on the maturity of the fur at the time the skins were caught, and on their shades of color. Ladies, unless very good judges, may overlook one of the other of these requisites. Messrs. Green & Green, corner of Main and Fourth streets, keep none but genuine furs, and sell them at the lowest prices. They buy the best goods that are made, and warrant all goods as represented.

FOR BURNING
KEROSENE OR COAL OIL
IN FLUID LAMPS

PATENTED MARCH 24, 1863.

THIS IS AN ARTICLE WHICH, ON ACCOUNT OF ITS UTILITY, SIMplicity and economy, has been throughout the best sales of lamps, you can burn Kerosene or Gas Oil, without smoke or smell, while most will be obtained from the same quantity of Oil.

With one of these burners applied to any fluid lamp it may be moved rapidly about, or even carried out of doors without the least being extinguished.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.—One of the best, and at the same time, most simple contrivances for burning Kerosene oil in a common fluid lamp. It is so simple that any child can apply it, and it is so effective that it will burn without even changing the wicking. It is one of the newest things that has come out of the laboratory, and is destined to become the standard lamp of the future. It is so simple that it can be made by any one, and it is so effective that it will burn without even changing the wicking. It is so simple that it can be made by any one, and it is so effective that it will burn without even changing the wicking.

[From the Scientific American.]

It accomplishes the object very perfectly, and dispenses with the annoying and expensive use of heavy-duty chimney and glass. The lamp is so simple that it can be made by any one, and it is so effective that it will burn without even changing the wicking. It is so simple that it can be made by any one, and it is so effective that it will burn without even changing the wicking.

It is an ad man's rubric invention, and effects the purpose in the simplest possible manner. These burrs are coming into universal use. — [Rockefeller]

"It is a very simple contrivance, and entirely effectual, and has a Rochester and extensive sale." — [Lafayette]
